- *Why was stone quarried in this area?

In the very early years of Killingly's existence (1700's), the land on present-day Mason Hill was part of the town's common, undivided lands.

Please help us protect this area by:

- not building fires or camping on the nature preserve
- using the trails for walking, not for motorized vehicles, bicycles, or horses
- keeping your pets on a leash and check for ticks
- avoiding disturbance to wild animals
- removing your trash
- respecting the quiet atmosphere for others to enjoy

MASON HILL CONSERVATION AREA

Address:
207 Mason Hill Road, Killingly, CT

Mason Hill Conservation Area is a nature preserve owned by the Town of Killingly and protected by a conservation easement held by the Killingly Conservation Commission. The Town acquired this 20-acre property through the Federal Lands to Parks Program in 2002. The trail on Mason Hill Conservation Area is a moderate 0.9-mile woodland loop trail.
